

Make Good Work Possible.
You cannot do good while your bowels are sluggish or your liver torpid. Wm. O. E. Bielke, Mar. Scott Hotel, Hancock, Mich., says: "I gave Foley Cathartic Tablets a thorough trial, and find them a mild but safe cathartic. Foley Cathartic Tablets never gripe or cause nausea. They do away with that dreary, dull, tired feeling and are a whole-some, cleansing and healthful. Most satisfactory for stout persons. Dickson Drug Store.—Adv."

Luminescence of Nitrogen.
It has been found that nitrogen, vigorously and spectroscopically pure, acquires a continuous luminescence, during the electric discharge, and therefore this phenomenon can no longer be attributed to the presence of traces of oxygen. In the presence of metallic vapors, such as those of mercury, sodium or potassium, says the Scientific American, the phenomenon is not produced owing to the nitrogen's being attacked by the metallic vapors, forming a combination of the metal with nitrogen. The presence of oxygen, which oxidizes the metallic vapors, hinders their action on the active nitrogen and renders its formation possible.

If you check up the number of bottles used you will find Foley's Honey and Tar in greater quantity than any other cough medicine. It is safe, prompt and effective for colds, croup, hoarseness, bronchial coughs, throat trouble and lagrippe. It contains no opiates and is perfect for children. Dickson Drug Store.—Adv.

Got Three Back.
Attorney Thomas C. Brinsmade doesn't object to a good story, even if it's on him. He tells this one: "The other day an old colored man came sauntering up to me in my yard, where there was a big pile of rubbish. 'Morning, John,' I said. 'Morning, Marse Tom, don't you want that rubbish hauled away?' 'What'll you take?' I asked. 'Dollah a load, n' I think I'll take jes' about two loads.' 'I'll give you 75 cents a load,' I told him. 'You remember me, do you, Marse Tom?' 'Why, sure, John.' 'Well, you remember when I was up for shootin' craps and you pleaded me guilty in police court?' 'Sure,' I said. 'And you charged me $10 an' I never said a dog-gone word!' John hauled the rubbish at $1 a load, and he made three loads of it."—Cleveland News.

Straightened Him Out.
J. P. Jones, Booths, Ark., writes: "I had a severe case of kidney trouble and could do no work at all. Foley's Kidney Pills straightened me out at once." The same story is told by thousands of others: weak back, rheumatism, kidney and bladder troubles yield quickly. Safe and effective. Dickson Drug Store.—Adv.

The Soldier's Ignorance.
The soldier's ignorance is not always restricted to the place in which he is fighting. The prospect of having to regard the khedive as an enemy reminds one of an anecdote of the Sudan campaign. It was after the fall of Omdurman; the khedive was being pursued, and there was a false report that he had been captured. "Boomerang," said one British soldier who heard of the report, "we've got the bloomin' khedive!" Tommy was in charming ignorance of the fact that he had been marching under the khedive's flag ever since he had started on the campaign.—London Chronicle.

Take Care of The Children.
A lingering cold, distressing cough, sleepless nights, a raw, inflamed throat lead to a run-down condition in which the child is not able to resist common diseases. Foley's Honey and Tar is truly healing and prompt in action. It relieves coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. Contains no opiates. Dickson Drug Store.—Adv.

The Coach.
Tolstoy who knew the Cossack, describes him in his novel "The Cossack" as follows: "He looks upon a woman as the instrument of his well-being. As long as she is unmarried she is allowed to make merry; but once a wife she must put aside the pleasures of youth and work even till the end of her days to add to his comfort. He is thoroughly oriental in his demand upon her obedience and toil. As a result of this state of things, the women, though to all appearances in subjection, become powerfully developed, both physically and morally, and, as is commonly the case in the East, possess incomparably more influence and consequence in domestic affairs than in the West. The Cossack, who in the presence of strangers regards it unbecoming to talk affectionately or gossip with his wife, cannot help feeling her superiority when he is left alone with her."

Good Excuses.
Two men were drinking together when the conversation turned on how to feed and train canaries, which happened to be their profession. They were telling each other the merits of their birds, which were to go in a show, and both were sure of winning the prize. At last one of them said, in a sorrowful tone: "Ah, Tom, if I had only got the one I had last week I should not have much trouble in winning, but I had taught him to sing, 'Home, Sweet Home,' so much to perfection that the tears rolled down his breast till he got exhausted, fell off his perch and was drowned in his own tears." "Oh," said Tom, "that's nothing. One night my bird was singing 'The Village Blacksmith' as true as that the sparks flew out of his eyes, set fire to the cage, and before we had time to put the flames out the poor little wretch got roasted to death."

TWO WOMEN AVOID OPERATIONS
By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
Chicago, Ill.—"I must thank you with all my heart for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I used to go to my doctor for pills and remedies and they did not help me. I had headaches and could not eat, and the doctor claimed I had female trouble and must have an operation. I read in the paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I have taken it and feel fine. A lady said one day, 'Oh, I feel so tired all the time and have headaches.' I said, 'Take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound,' and she did feel fine now."—Mrs. M. R. KANSCHEN, 1438 N. Paulina Street, Chicago, Illinois.

The Other Case.
Dayton, Ohio.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound relieved me of pains in my side that I had for years and which doctors' medicines failed to relieve. It has certainly saved me from an operation. I will be glad to assist you by a personal letter to any woman in the same condition."—Mrs. J. W. SHEER, 126 Cass St., Dayton, Ohio.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS
FOR BACKACHE, KIDNEYS AND BLADDER

Fuel Qualities of Wood.
The fuel qualities of chestnut adapt it particularly to work in brass foundries, where it gives just the required amount of heat and it is therefore in favor. Chestnut wood in Florida pays twice as much for Florida but-towood as for any other, because it burns with an even heat and with a minimum amount of smoke and ash. The principal disadvantage of the resinous pines is their oily black smoke.

Peculiarity of the Mississippi.
One of the most peculiar things about the Mississippi river was figured out by a government engineer. He says that it would be possible for a man to take a light canoe at Green-ville, Miss., and by floating down stream 40 miles and portaging four times he would find himself 40 miles upstream from where he started.

Men With Conceit.
Experience is a great teacher, but there are some conceited men who imagine they can give experience cards and spades and beat it at the teaching game.

"The time will come when your wish will be a new home. Save money now."

Small savings have been in many instances the means of making the first payment on a home. The fact that you have a Bank account brings about a confidence which results in better terms of purchase than you could make if you did not save. It is not so much the money as it is the standing a Bank account gives you.—That's where we can help you. Begin with one dollar.

PREPARE FOWLS FOR MARKET
Dry-Picking Method Allowable for Broilers Only—Alternatively Dressed Poultry Sells Itself.

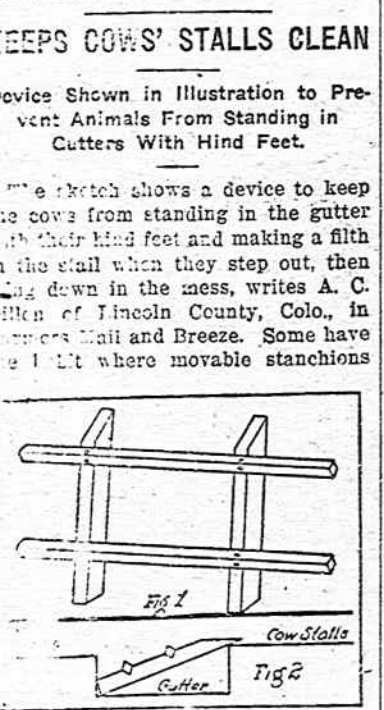

Either scalding or the dry-picking method can be used for fowls intended for market, but for broilers only the dry-picking method is allowable. A chick only a few weeks old is a very tender bird, but if scalded it will be impossible to pick it without seriously rubbing a hole in the skin. These spots will darken and give the broiler a shabby look. The scalding method has the tendency to make the broiler pickling not only a long and messy job, but also a loss of the natural flavor of the flesh. The dry-picking method is the best to use. It is a good trade. Attractively dressed poultry sells faster, while inferior stuff goes begging.

Dry-picked poultry will stand longer shipment than those that are scalded. The carcasses should be dressed immediately after being killed. To allow the feathers to remain on for several hours will hasten decomposition.

When scalding poultry for market it is best to first dry-pick the legs, so that they will not necessarily be placed in the water and change color. Neither the heads nor the feet should touch the water. The water ought to be as near the boiling point as possible, without boiling.

KEEPS COWS' STALLS CLEAN
Device Shown in Illustration to Prevent Animals From Standing in Cutters With Hind Feet.

The sketch shows a device to keep the cows from standing in the gutter with their hind feet and making a filthy mess down in the mess, writes A. C. Hiken of Lincoln County, Colo., in the Denver Mail and Breeze. Some have the stalls where movable stanchions are not used. This device works to perfection and sometimes cures cows of the habit.

You will need two pieces of 2 by 4. Cut them to fit your gutter as shown in Fig. 1. Angle off one end so the pieces will fit on a sharp corner. Cut two half-diamond cuts in these pieces and set in the cross pieces. These are made of 3 by 3 and are securely nailed. If the gutter is very wide you may have to put in three pieces, as a cow used to standing in the gutter will soon find she can get her feet down between the strips. If you have two or more cows that have this trick stand them together. You can make the strips long enough for several cows and put extra 2 by 4 pieces in to support the strips. Lay the rack and place it back to the wall before turning out the cows. This device effectively cures your helpers of the habit.

DAIRY NOTES

Keep salt before the cows at all times.

Regularity in feeding is of supreme importance with the dairy cow.

Keep the floors warm. Cold floors cause much loss in milk in winter.

In salting butter one ounce of salt to a pound of butter is generally about right.

Dairy barn ventilation should be furnished by a system, not by cracks and drafts.

The successful dairymen is the man who puts thought into his work. He is a student of conditions.

Now about those cow stables. Don't forget that a hole in the side of the cow barn means a hole in the pocket.

On warm days let the cows out in the yard for a change and to get in the sun. When cold keep them in the stable.

Just can't afford to let the cows lose flesh or get a setback. Remember it costs money to get an animal in good condition.

Many times the cow that does not yield a profit at the pail is just as liberal an eater at the manger as the cow that does make you money every day.

Feed cows daily one pound of grain for every three pounds of milk produced, twenty-five to forty pounds of cornilage, and what clover or alfalfa hay they will eat.

Very frequently a cow that is only fair as to breeding and productive capacity will do better in the hands of a good manager than a good cow under the care of a poor one.
